With a history stretching back to 1897, Yarrowonga Mulwala Golf Club Resort is the largest public access golf resort in Australia. Comprising two 18-hole courses and a nine-hole course the layouts integrate holes designed by Sam Berriman (1957) and Peter Thomson and Mike Wolveridge (1982 and 1986).

Victorian Hickory Shaft Championships 2025

The Golf Society of Australia invites you to return to the game's origins and participate in a festival of hickory golf. Along with your choice of up to three days of golf beside the Murray River, the event will include welcome drinks, a historians forum, a buy swap and sell event, and nightly informal dinners among like-minded hickory devotees.
